PRINT EXCHANGE

23

INGLESIDE STUDIOS is a bespoke art studio nestled in the Adelaide foothills and headed up by contemporary printmaker, Sally Caston. This inaugural [hopefully International] Print Exchange, aims to connect printmakers from around the world through their love of printed media. The exchange is open to printmakers worldwide.

Theme

Flora and Fauna

Edition Size

Twelve (12)

Note: Due to the nature of the exchange, we cannot accept varied editions. Please ensure all prints submitted as one edition are as identical as possible.

Each print must be interleaved with 14cm x 14cm glassine or tissue paper.

Variable editions and artist proofs will not be accepted.

Paper size

14cm x 14cm (5.5 inches x 5.5 inches)

Note: Please ensure all prints and paper are the same size.

Max. print size

10cm x 10cm (3.9 inches x 3.9 inches)

Print margin

A minimum 2cm (0.8 inch) clear margin is required around print/image area.

Paper selection

All prints must be printed on a recognised archival paper: e.g. Fabriano, Hahnemühle or Rives BFK etc... The only exception to this will be handmade paper made specifically for this exchange.

Of the prints submitted, INGLESIDE STUDIOS keeps two; the first is for our archive; the second is for exhibiting. The remaining prints are randomised, sorted, and each printmaker receives ten random prints in return from all printmakers all over the world.

IMPORTANT DATES

March 31 = Registration closes

June 30 = Received at Ingleside Studios

FEES

$AU20 Australian registration

$AU35 International registration

Print presentation

Each print must be individually protected by acid-free tissue or glassine paper only.

All prints must be completely dry before submission.

Signing and editioning

All your wonderful prints must be signed in pencil only and editioned in the print margin along the bottom edge of the print with the following details:

Left-hand side – Edition Number (1/12, 2/12 ... 12/12)

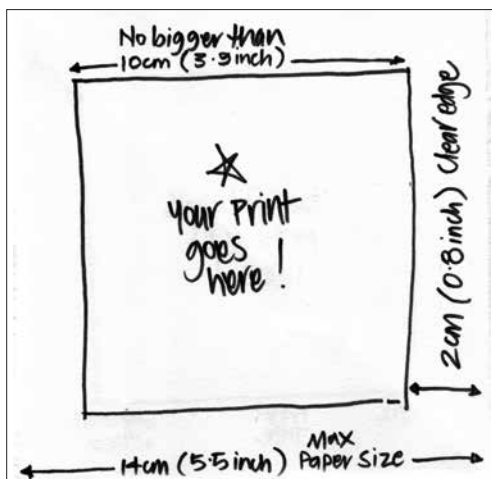

Centre – Print Title

There must not be any other writing/labels and/or mark-making on the reverse of the print or within the print margin. Clearly mark your delivering envelope with your name.
